

ZMO Visiting Research Fellowship 2009

The Zentrum Moderner Orient (ZMO) in Berlin offers visiting fellowships for mature doctoral students as well as postdoctoral and senior researchers working on Asia or Africa. Fellows may apply for periods between one and six months. They will be entitled to access to computing facilities and have full access to the library and other facilities. Stipends will range from 1.500 to 2.500 €/month, depending on experience. Partial scholarships are available for researchers on other grants. Applicants should provide a short outline of their research, a CV with a list of publications and two academic referees (name and address with email). Please send your application to Silke Nagel at zmo@rz.hu-berlin.de. Do not hesitate to contact Silke Nagel for further information under 030-80307-0.

The deadline for fellowship applications for 2009 is October 1, 2008.
